

Salt Fork Arts & Crafts 2012

FESTIVAL

STANDARDS POLICY

- The Standards Committee of the 2012 Salt Fork Arts & Crafts Festival will review all artisans booths during the festival. The committee reserves the right to request the removal of any work found to be substandard and not representative of the work submitted for approval or in violation of the rules of the festival. It is the responsibility of the standards committee to reflect the overall purpose of the Ohio Arts & Crafts Foundation to present an annual festival that offers arts and crafts of the highest possible quality.
- All booths and merchandise set ups must be complete prior to the opening of the festival at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, August 10, 2012
- Artists are encouraged to present periodic demonstrations relating to their arts or crafts and are required to occupy their booths both days of the festival. They must be sole exhibitors unless a co-exhibitor is approved in advance by the jury. Sharing a booth with another artist that is accepted by the jury is allowed.
- Subletting or exchanging of booth location is not allowed.
- There is paid security protection provided on Thursday and Friday nights, however, the festival cannot be responsible for property loss or damage. Artist exhibitors should provide their own insurance.
- Exhibitors will be allowed to bring their vehicles into the park for the purpose of unloading their tents and merchandise. After unloading everything they will be required to move their vehicle to the parking area reserved for exhibitors. Exhibitors will be provided with a parking pass. Vehicles are not allowed in the park for any reason during the festival.
- Exhibitor spaces are 10' x10' or 20' x20'. Exhibitors must supply their own tents.
- Upon request a Festival Volunteer Ambassador will be provided to sit with your booth for a period not exceeding 20 minutes
- No alcoholic beverages are allowed at any time during the festival on the festival grounds.
- All exhibitor's must have their vendor's license.
- There will be EMT services available during the days and hours of the festival.
- Only original work handcrafted by the artists and craftsmen listed on the application is permitted. No kits or bazaar items. No commercial advertising is to be done and no commercial art or craft supplies are to be sold by any exhibitor. In specific cases where commercial accessory items are to be sold in conjunction with the art or craft work, it must be clearly stated on the application form. All decisions concerning what accessories are eligible will rest with the Standards Committee.
