All booths and merchandise set-ups must be complete by 11 a.m. Friday, August 12, 2022.

Artists are encouraged to present periodic demonstrations related to their arts or crafts and are required to occupy their booths each day of the Festival. Paid security protection will be provided on Thursday, Friday and Saturday night. However, the Festival cannot be responsible for property loss or damage. Artist exhibitors should provide their own insurance.

The Salt Fork Festival reserves the right to inspect all structures placed on the premises.

Upon request, a Festival Volunteer will be provided to sit with your booth for a period not exceeding 20 minutes.

No alcoholic beverages are allowed in the Cambridge City Park at any time during the Festival.

In specific cases where commercial accessory items are to be sold in conjunction with the art or craft work, it must be clearly stated on the application form. All decisions concerning what accessories are eligible will rest with the Standards Committee.
